Exchange Student

Jessica Weber came to Proctor as an exchange student from a small city outside of Koln, Germany. Jess was a well-rounded person and was eager to participate in new activities. She made a super impression on Proctor High School.

She decided to try out for the cheerleading squad even though she did not know anything about it. She learned the cheers, made the varsity squad, and was a great asset to the group.

While here she enjoyed dance lessons, downhill skiing at Killington and learned how to water ski at Lake Bomoseen.

The Zawistoskis were her host family and she made a lot of friends. We were sorry when she had to return home and appreciate her contributions to the school.

The freshmen provided refreshments at the skating rink warming hut.

Indoors, Jack Healy of WSYB broadcast live from the gym where events included volleyball and indoor hockey and soccer. Students could warm up at the junior sponsored lunch and participate in scattergories, ping pong, and trivia. Classes also accumulated points for attendance at the boys' basketball game against Arlington, for wearing school colors, for attendance on Carnival Day, and for sportsmanship.
